Numb. 307.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From October 17. to October 24. 1734.

The SPEECH of the Honourable Patrick Gordon, Eſq; Lieut. Governor of the Province of Pennſylvania, and Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex upon Delaware;

To the Repreſentatives of the Freemen of the ſaid Province, met at Philadelphia, Octob. 15. 1734.

Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen,

IT is with much Pleaſure that I again ſee the Repreſentatives of the good People of this Province met in General Aſſembly, and I joyfully embrace the Opportunity now given me of congratulating you and the Country on the late happy Arrival of the eldeſt of our Proprietaries amongſt us, whoſe affectionate Concern for the Welfare of Pennſylvania, the Place of his Birth, and for the Happineſs of all its Inhabitants, will, I am perſwaded, no leſs entitle him to their Regard and Eſteem, than his Perſonal Merits endear him to all that know him.

As it has not been uſual for the Aſſemblies of this Province to enter on any Buſineſs of Moment at their firſt Meeting, I have generally delayed laying any Matters before them till their Second Seſſion; But at this time I conceive it to be incumbent on me, and agreeable to the conſtant Profeſſions I have made of my hearty Inclinations to promote and advance, as far as lies in my Power, the true Intereſt of this Government, in which I ſhall ever chuſe to have the Advice of its Repreſentatives, to communicate to you the Purport of a Letter I have very lately received from the Secretary to my Lords Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations, deſiring my Opinion what further Encouragements may be neceſſary to engage the Inhabitants of the Britiſh Colonies on the Continent of America, particularly of thoſe within my Government, to apply their Induſtry to the Cultivation of Naval Stores of all Kinds; and likewiſe of ſuch other Products as may be proper for the Soil of the ſaid Colonies, and do not interfere with the Trade or Produce of Great Britain; My Anſwer hereunto is expected as ſoon as poſſible, that their Lordſhips may have time to conſider of it before making their Report on this Subject, at the Beginning of the next Seſſion of Parliament, which may be about Chriſtmas next.

As this Province, Gentlemen, produces, tho' in but too ſmall Quantities, ſundry Commodities which Britain is obliged to purchaſe from other Nations, and may be further capable of great Improvements, no ways interfering with the Trade and real Intereſt of our Mother-Country; it is our immediate Duty on this Occaſion, to apply all our Thoughts to conſider what Progreſs may be made in thoſe Manufactures which our Soil and Climate will admit of; and what may be proper to be propoſed as Encouragements for inciting our Induſtry thereto. Nothing will give me greater Satisfaction, than to be able on theſe Points to deliver my Opinion conſiſtent with the general Senſe of the People whom you now repreſent.

The uſual Buſineſs of the Year, and what the Publick Service ſhall point out as neceſſary, will no doubt come under your Conſideration at your ſubſequent Seſſions; and I flatter myſelf the Experience you have had of my paſt Conduct, makes it unneceſſary for me to add to thoſe Aſſurances which I have conſtantly given, of contributing my utmoſt for the Honour and Advantage of a Province that has deſerved ſo well of me.

Philadel Octob. 15. 1734. P. GORDON.

To the Honourable PATRICK GORDON, Eſq; Lieut. Governor of the Province of Pennſylvania, &c.

The ADDRESS of the Repreſentatives of the Freemen of the ſaid Province in General Aſſembly met.

May it pleaſe the GOVERNOR,

'THE happy Arrival of the Eldeſt of our Proprietors into this their Province, gave us ſenſible Satisfaction and Pleaſure, which with Chearfulneſs and Unanimity we have endeavoured to demonſtrate in a Congratulatory Addreſs preſented him on that Occaſion.

'We gratefully acknowledge the Governor's hearty Inclinations to promote the Intereſt of this Colony, and his affectionate Regard to the Inhabitants thereof, apparent, not only in his kind Expreſſions, but in his good Conduct, which has ſo much contributed to our Eaſe and Happineſs. And we take it as a freſh Inſtance of his Care for our Welfare, that he has been pleaſed to communicate to us the Purport of the Letter he lately received from the Lords of Trade and Plantations; the Subject of which is of great Importance to the People of this Province, and might juſtly require our further Deliberation; but as the Governor is under a Neceſſity of returning a ſpeedy Anſwer in that Affair, we think it a Duty incumbent on us, now to ſay, that we humbly conceive Hemp, Pigg- and Bar-Iron being Commodities generally purchaſed with Money by the Subjects of Great Britain, from the Northern Kingdoms, might on a Bounty given by the Government at Home, be had from ſome Parts of this and other Colonies, equally good, in Exchange for the Manufactures and Produce of our Mother-Country, much wanted and with Difficulty paid for amongſt us.

'The frequent Aſſurances the Governor has been pleaſto give us, of Contributing the utmoſt in his Power for our Intereſt, leave us no room to doubt, but that he will repreſent theſe Matters in the ſtrongeſt and moſt advantageous Light, and will thereby render it a Duty incumbent on us; to repeat our Acknowledgments for this Favour, added to the many already received of him by the Inhabitants of this Province.

The Governor's ANSWER.

GENTLEMEN,

I THANK you for this obliging Addreſs, and you may be aſſured I ſhall not be ſo far wanting to myſelf, as to neglect any Occaſion that may be improved for the Service of this Province.

To

To the Honourable JOHN PENN, Esq; One of the PROPRIETORS of the Province of PENNSYLVANIA, &c.

The ADDRESS of the Representatives of the Freemen of the said Province in General Assembly met.

May it please the PROPRIETOR,

'EXCITED by Affection and Gratitude, we chearfully embrace this Opportunity of Congratulating Thee on thy safe Arrival to the Place of thy Nativity. When we commemorate the many Benefits bestowed on the Inhabitants of this Colony, the Religious and Civil Liberties we possess, and to whom these valuable Privileges under GOD, and the King, are owing; we should be wanting to ourselves and them that we represent, did we not do Justice to the Memory of thy worthy Ancestor, a Man of Principles truly humane, an Advocate for Religion and Liberty.

'What may we not hope for, from a Son of so great a a Man, educated under his Care, and influenced by his Example! May his Descendants inherit his Virtues as well as his Estate, and long continue a Blessing to Pennsylvania.

Sign'd by Order of the House,

A HAMILTON, SPEAKER.

To which His Honour was pleased to return a very Obliging ANSWER.

London, July 24. The Letters from Paris assure, that it is not yet known whether the French Army would proceed next to the Siege of Mentz, or endeavour to find out Prince Eugene and force him to a Battle.

Some Letters from the Rhine advise, that the Marshal Duke de Noailles, who was sent with a Body of Troops to observe the Motion of Prince Eugene's Army, accidentally fell in with the Rear-Guard, and began a very brisk Charge, but the whole Army facing about to succour their Rear, the French were immediately obliged to Retreat. 'Tis said, that notwithstanding the Action was so short, some Hundreds were killed and wounded on both Sides. 'Tis added, that the King of Prussia, and his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange were present, and behaved with the greatest Conduct and Bravery.

Yesterday Morning, about Two o'Clock, a Fire broke out at Mr. Tebbs, a Grocer's, near the Ship Tavern at Temple-Bar, which burnt with such Fury, that in four Hours time the said House, with 9 others were burnt down, and several others very much damaged. The Fire was stop'd on that Side next Temple-Bar by the accidental blowing up of a House that had some Powder in it, and the same Blast happily stifled the Fury of the Distiller's Shop, which otherwise might have spread the Flames further in the Neighbourhood, for the Buildings were for the most part Wood without Partition Walls, and if the Night had not been very still, and great Help, with a vast Number of Engines and Plenty of Water, all Butcher-Row, and most part of Ship Yard and Sheer-Lane, in all Probability must have been destroyed; but the Way being wide, there were 20 Engines playing at one time, which intirely put out the Fire by 6 in the Morning

Mr. Tebbs, his Mother, Sister and Maid Servant, jump'd out of the one Pair of Stairs Window, not being able to save any Thing wharsoever.

A Fireman belonging to the Hand in Hand Insurance Office fell from the Top of Mr. Grover's House, and died of the Bruises soon after; and three others were so very much bruised by the Falling of a Roof of a House, that their Lives are despaired of.

It is feared that several Persons are buried in the Ruins.

The same Morning, about Ten, another Fire broke out at Mr. Needham's a Distiller, in Prince's-Street, Covent Garden, occasioned by the Head of a Still flying off, but was soon extinguished by the Assistance of the Engines that were fetch'd from the Fire at Temple-Bar.

July 29. They write from Paris, that his most Christian Majesty reckons to have a Fleet of 73 Men of War at Sea in two Months time. They are at present as follows.

In the Mediteranean 14. In the Italian Seas 7. In the Road of Copenhagen 5. Equipping at Toulon 9. Equipping at Brest 27. In the Seas of Barbary, America, &c 11.

'Tis added, that the said Prince has resolved upon a numerous Augmentation of his Army, and that the Levies are carry'd on with great Diligence in every Part of the Kingdom.

July 31. Letters from the Streights advise, that the Master of an English Ship lately met 14 French Men of War going into Cadiz.

Private Letters from the Rhine advise, that Prince Eugene has sent to acquaint the Elector of Mentz, that his Electoral Highness need be under no Apprehensions for his Capital, for he was marching that way with his whole Army, and would be no idle Spectator, in case the French attempted to form a Siege of that Place; and added, that in case they could not be diverted by other Means, he was resolved to risk the Event of a General Battle.

Bristol, July 13. Last Tuesday arrived here a Coaster, Charles Clement, Master, from Oystermouth, alias the Mumbles, 3 Miles from Swanzey, in the County of Glamorgan, who gives an Account, that Tuesday the 2d Instant, one John Maddock committed two of the most inhuman Murders scarce to be parallelled, on the Bodies of his poor ancient Father and Mother.

The said Maddock being a Ship Carpenter, was that Day working on a Dredging Oyster-Boat, and seeing his Father walking on the Beach, he instantly left his Work, and with an Ax fell'd him unmercifully to the Ground, leaving him for dead; after which he ran to his Father's House, and finding there his Mother, he also with his Ax split her Scull, and dash'd out her Brains, while she was in her Daughter's Arms, who with horrible Shrieks did her Endeavour to prevent it, but would have shared the same Fate, had she not immediately fled to the Village. The Murderer returning to the Beach, at some Distance seeing his wounded Father upon his Legs, supported by several Persons, who were leading him to an adjacent House, he ran so furiously at them with his Ax, as oblig'd them to quit their Assistance and save their Lives, tho' with Horror to see him cut and mangle his Father in the most unheard of Manner, till he had finished his Life. He put the whole Village in Fear, till he was knock'd down by a Club, and being carried before a Justice of the Peace, he was sent under a Guard of Constables to Cardiff Goal. It is said he had been delirious some Time before.

LONDON.

Aug 5. On Thursday in the Evening several notorious Smugglers were stopp'd by the King's Officers at Lewisham in Kent, when a sharp Engagement arose, and one of the Officers was kill'd on the Spot, and another so much bruised that 'twas thought he could not live.

A Carpenter sitting in a Field near Bedminster, Somersetshire, a Viper bit him by the Hand; the Venom mortified all that Side he was bit on, and he died after 4 Days, in miserable Condition, the Stench was so offensive, that his Corps was buried without Ceremony. Sallad Oil applied warm to the Wound is an effectual Cure.

At a General Court at the South-Sea Company, a Dividend was declared of 1 and a half per Cent. on the Trading Stock for the Half Year ending at Midsummer last.

Last Friday three young Tygers were Whelp'd in the Dens at the Tower: 'Tis not known that that Species of Creatures ever bred in England before..

They write from Eversham, that on the 26th of last Month, 650 lb. Weight of Tea, was seized by Mr. King, one of the Custom House Officers of that Place.

The Pearl Man of War, Capt Tollard, is appointed to carry over Joseph Cogin, Ambassador from the Bey of Tunis, who is on the Point of returning home.

We are inform'd that the Muscovite Soldiers had but a Penny a Day, no Stockings or Shoes, and scarce any Cloathing.

We hear that the War Captains and other Attendants of Tomo Chichi, the Indian Chief, were very importunate to appear at Court in the Manner they go in their own Country, which is only with a proper Covering round their Waist, all the rest of their Body being naked; but Mr. Oglethorpe, whom they reverence as their Father, recommending to them the Dress they have at present, they declin'd any further Sollicitations.

They are perfectly well shap'd, and in their ordinary manner of walking is express'd a wonderful Strength and Agility: This they are conscious of, and unwilling to have conceal'd.

Their

Their Faces were painted in a ſurprizing manner, ſome half Black, others Triangular, and others with bearded Arrows inſtead of Whiskers. Tomo Chichi the Chief, and Senauki his Wife, were in Scarlet trimm'd with Gold; and the reſt in Blue.

The Son of the Indian King, is, by His Majeſty's Order, to be Baptiz'd in the Chriſtian Faith, and to be ſent to Weſtminſter-School for his Education.

Boſton, Sept. 16. Mr. Oxnard of Barbados, Merchant and Paſſenger on board of Capt. King, coming hither for the Recovery of his Health, dy'd on his Paſſage.

Tueſday laſt being a Day of Muſter at Watertown (when Capt. Edward Durant, with a Troop of Horſe made a handſome Appearance &c.) a young Man loaded his Gun to that Degree, that in Firing it ſpilt and tore his left Hand to pieces; and the next Day it was cut off, and we hear he is a fair way of Recovery.

Laſt Week arrived Capt. Pico from St. Thomas's after a Paſſage of about 25 Days, who gives an Account, That the Negroes on the Iſland of St. John's, being well inform'd that a Party from Martineco were coming to ſubdue them, deſtroy'd one another, and were found lying in Heaps and only 15 or 16 left alive, who ſurrendered themſelves on promiſe of Quarters, but have ſince receiv'd their Tryal, and were to be Executed the Day he left St. Thomas's.

We have Advice that the General Court have Voted Two Thouſand Pounds more for effecting the Repairs of His Majeſty's Caſtle William, and erecting a new Battery, or Line of Defence there.

At Salisbury in theſe Parts, a Calf of 3 Months and 10 Days old, weigh'd 308 Pound, was 3 Feet 4 Inches high, in Bigneſs 4 Feet, in Length from the end of his Noſe to his Rump 5 Feet 3 Inches, and to the end of his Tail 7 Feet 2 Inches.

We are credibly inform'd of the like lihood of a great Crop at Barbadoes.

We hear from New-Hampſhire, that ſome Gentlemen there have agreed to Emit Notes of Hand to the Value of Twenty Five Thouſand Pounds, Redeemable by Flax, or Bils of Credit of the common Currency.

PHILADELPHIA, Octo. 24.

Saturday laſt, at a Court of Oyer and Terminer held here, came on the Tryal of a Man and his Wife, who were indicted for the Murder of a Daughter which he had by a former Wife, (a Girl of about 14 Years of Age) by turning her out of Doors, and thereby expoſing her to ſuch Hardſhips, as afterwards produced grievous Sickneſs and Lameneſs; during which, inſtead of ſupplying her with Neceſſaries and due Attendance, they treated her with the utmoſt Cruelty and Barbarity, ſuffering her to lie and rot in her Naſtineſs, and when ſhe cried for Bread giving her into her Mouth with a Iron Ladle, her own Excrements to eat, with a great Number of other Circumſtances of the like Nature, ſo that ſhe languiſhed and at length died. The Evidence againſt them was numerous, and in many Particulars poſitive; but the Opinion of the Phyſician who had viſited the Child, that whatever Uſage might be given her, the Diſtemper ſhe laboured under was ſuch, as would of itſelf in all Probability have ended her Life about the Time ſhe died, it is thought weighed ſo much with the Jury, that they brought in their Verdict only Man ſlaughter. A Verdict which the Judge, (in a ſhort but pathetic Speech to the Priſoners before the Sentence) told them was extreamly favourable; and that, as the Relation of their hitherto unheard-of Barbarity had in the higheſt Manner ſhocked all that were preſent; ſo, if they were not perfectly ſtupified, the inward Reflection upon their own enormous Crimes, muſt be more terrible and ſhocking to them, than the Puniſhment they were to undergo: For that they had not only acted contrary to the particular Laws of all Nations, but had even broken the Univerſal Law of Nature; ſince there are no Creatures known, how ſavage, wild, and fierce ſoever, that have not implanted in them a natural Love and Care of their tender Offspring, and that will not even hazard Life in its Protection and Defence. ---- But this is not the only Inſtance the preſent Age has afforded, of the incomprehenſible Inſenſibility Dram-drinking is capable of producing ------ They were ſentenced to be burnt in the Hand, which was accordingly executed in Court, upon them both, but firſt upon the Man, who offer'd to receive another Burning if ſo be his Wife might be excuſed; but was told the Law would not allow it.

Sunday Night laſt, J. Jekyll, Eſq; Collector of the Port of Boſton, was married in this City, to Mrs. Margaret Shippen of Maryland; a young Lady of celebrated Beauty, Merit and Fortune.

Monday laſt, His Honour the Governor went down to New-Caſtle by Water, to meet the Aſſembly of the three Lower-Counties. And

On Tueſday our Honourable Proprietaries ſet out for the ſame Place by Land.

We hear from Cheſter, that at the Court of Oyer and Terminer held there this Week, a Woman was try'd and found Guilty of Burglary, and condemn'd to Death.

We hear from Kingſton in Jamaica, that on the firſt of September laſt, a violent Gale of Wind blew from One in the Morning till Five, from N. E. to S. S. E. in which a great Number of Veſſels ſuffered in the Loſs of Maſts, Bowſprits, and Boats, but tis thought that moſt of thoſe that went aſhore will be got off again.

We hear that a Ship from London-derry bound to this Port, is loſt off Prime Hook, near the Cape; but the People and moſt of the Goods ſaved.

Advices by Capt. Chalkley from Dublin, of Auguſt 31. inform us, that there had then been no Battle upon the Rhine, but a conſiderable Party of French had been defeated; And that there was great Talk of the Probability of Great Britain and Holland's continuing in Peace.
